

INVITATION

Business and Human Rights: Programming in the new decade

An informal dialogue with Development Partners

30 June 2021 | 8:00 am EST

As part of the 2021 UNDP Annual Meeting on Rule of Law and Human Rights this informal discussion will convene key Development Partners active in the field of Responsible Business to share plans and priorities around supporting the implementation of the UNGPs over the next 10 years.

8:00-8:10: UNDP's Global Ambition, Katy Thompson, Head of Rule of Law, Security and Human Rights

- Regional Forums on BHR at the center of our work in all regions
- From National Action Plans to Due Diligence norms at country level
- Guiding companies on Human Rights Due Diligence in times of peace and conflict
- Working with NHRIs and CSOs to make remedies effective

8:10-8:25: Building on what already happening at field level, UNDP BHR Focal Points in the Regions

- Asia and the Pacific
- Africa
- Arab States
- Eastern Europe and Central Asia
- Latin America and the Caribbean

08:25- 08:40: Ongoing and upcoming initiatives of Development Partners

- Two-minute sharing of plans and priorities in the BHR field from each development partner

08:40- 9:00: Tuning approaches and finding complementarities, All participants

- Free discussion